GERMAN REPUBLIC PROTESTS

Kaiser Wilhelm II yesterday received bands of Monarchist refugees crossing from the German Republic into East Prussia. Princess Hermine stood beside the former Emperor as he offered what he called a "heartly welcome to true Germans." Officials in Berlin were quick to answer. Reich Chancellor Joseph Wirth declared: "All Germans are true Germans. The Kaiser was lawfully deposed. He is no king of Prussia, for Prussia no longer exists. East Prussia remains a province of the Reich Republic." Asked to comment on this, the Kaiser merely

ROYAL NAVY HALTS PAPAL STATES VESSEL OFF JAMAICAN COAST

A Royal Navy ship intercepted a Papal States vessel off the Jamaican coast on Friday. A brief and tense standoff followed, although no shots were fired and both ships later stood down. Mr. Archibald Cartright, ambassador for the Papal States in London, protested at what he described as British overreach towards the ship of a sovereign nation. Prime Minister Lloyd George expressed full confidence in the Royal Navy.
